PROCESS

The art of giving shape to stones, work begins by careful planning of designs and setting the colour patterns. The craftsman use the tools that are much the same used in the Mughal Period. A floral or geometrical piece is cut out and placed on a marble surface. It is outlined with a scribed and then the marble is carefully carved out using a steel chisel.

A careful selection of various shades of stones and shells is used to give the right gradation and shading to the designs. The selected stones are shaped with the help of especially made emery wheels. Each part of the design is shaped individually, which requires a lot of patience.

The stones are then set in the chiseled indentations with an adhesive that is a mixture of 19 different ingredients. The articles are then hand polished and waxed. The whole process calls for sharp, dexterous hands, patience and high accuracy.

CARE AND MAINTAINANCE

The ever-lasting finish requires only simple and routine care to maintain its goods looks. To clean Trade Link Gemstones, we recommend using warm water, mild detergent and a white cloth.

Stubborn Stains or Dried Spills : Any mild clearer or detergent can be used on stubborn stains. to remove adhered materials like foods, gum and nail polish, first scrape away the excess with a plastic putty knife. Then wipe away with denatured alcohol to remove stubborn marks, however the surface should be rinsed with water immediately after their use.

Heat Resistance : Trade Link Gemstones can tolerate moderately hot temperatures for brief periods of time. direct contact between very hot pots and the Trade Link gemstones surface should be avoided. We recommend using an insulator / hot pad / trivet especially when using cooking units like electric fry pans, works and kettles.

Tough - yes, indestructible - No.

Avoid any highly caustic cleaning agates like oven and grill cleaners and dishwashing agents that have high alkaline/pH levels. Products containing oils or powders may leave a residue and should be rinsed off thoroughly. Should your surface accidentally be exposed to any of these damaging products, rinse immediately with water to neutralize the effects.

Scratch resistance : Trade Link Gemstones is highly scratch resistant. However, avoid using sharp objects directly onto the surface.
